Memberships directly support the mission and efforts of Effie Yeaw Nature Center and the American River Natural History Association. Please help continue natural science education programs and environmental stewardship of the American River Parkway!

About Effie Yeaw Nature Center

The Effie Yeaw Nature Center was founded in 1976 to provide educational and interpretive activities along the American River Parkway. Here, visitors of all ages learn about our natural history plus the importance of conserving and protecting our most precious natural resources. Our programs, exhibits, animal ambassadors, and Nature Center are a vital resource for the families and individuals of this region.

The Nature Center is managed by the American River Natural History Association, a nonprofit organization. Together, the Nature Center and ARNHA are committed to continuing excellent, award-winning programs that introduce our community residents to the beauty and diversity of the American River Parkway.
